SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" previously adopted by the Court, as follows:
  1. The defendant shall maintain a checking account in the defendant's name and deposit into this account all income, monetary gains or other pecuniary proceeds, and make use of this account for payment of all personal expenses. All other bank accounts must be disclosed to the probation officer.
  2. The defendant shall not make application for any loan or enter into any credit arrangement, without first consulting with the probation officer.
  3. The defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation officer. The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give-away, or otherwise convey any asset, without first consulting with the probation officer.
  4. If the defendant owns or maintains interest in any profit or nonprofit entity, you shall, upon request, surrender and/or make available for review, any and all documents and records of said profit or nonprofit entity to the probation officer.
  5. The defendant shall, upon request of the probation officer, complete a personal financial affidavit and authorize release of any and all financial information, to include income and tax return records, by execution of a Release of Financial Information form, or by any other appropriate means.
3. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Computer Restriction Conditions" previously adopted by the Court, as follows:
  1. The defendant shall disclose all e-mail accounts, Internet connections and Internet connection devices, including screen names and passwords, to the probation officer; and shall immediately advise the probation officer of any changes in his or her e-mail accounts, connections, devices, or passwords.
  2. The probation officer shall have authority to monitor all computer activity, to include all e-mail or Internet connections, to include but not limited to installation of remote monitoring software. Unless waived by the probation officer, the cost of remote monitoring software shall be paid by the defendant.
  3. The defendant shall not access any on-line service using an alias, or access any on-line service using the Internet account, name, or designation of another person or entity; and report immediately to the probation officer access to any Internet site containing prohibited material.
  4. The defendant is prohibited from using any form of encryption, cryptography, stenography, compression, password-protected files or other methods that limit access to, or change the appearance of, data and/or images.
  5. The defendant is prohibited from altering or destroying records of computer use, including the use of software or functions designed to alter, clean or "wipe" computer media, block monitoring software, or restore a computer to a previous state.
  6. If instructed, the defendant shall provide all personal and business telephone records and credit card statements to the probation officer
4. While on supervision, the defendant shall cooperate with the IRS in preparing and filing true and correct income tax returns for any tax years since 1987 for which the defendant has not filed a tax return; cooperate with the IRS in civil proceedings to determine accurately his tax liabilities for the same years; establish a payment schedule with the IRS and pay all taxes, interest, and penalties owed in connection with his tax debt according to the payment schedule set by the IRS.
5. The defendant shall not engage in any activity that would constitute the unauthorized or unlicensed practice of law, nor provide representation or services of any kind, advice, suggestions, or recommendations, whether paid or not, to any person or entity, public or private, other than immediate family members, with respect to any matter relating to federal or state taxation. The defendant will maintain no website that refers to any matter relating to federal or state taxation. The defendant will post no material of any kind on any website that refers to any matter relating to federal or state taxation. The defendant will not file, without the expressed written permission of the Probation Office, any civil action relating to federal income tax.
6. The defendant shall not work directly or indirectly in any business, profession, or self-employment engaged in the offer, sale, purchase, trade, brokering, solicitation, or similar transactions with respect to any real property, securities or negotiable instruments. The defendant will not engage in telemarketing activities, to include any telephone sales or other such business, campaign, venture, or transaction. The defendant shall maintain employment. All employment must be approved in advance by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by electronic monitoring, curfew requirements, and travel restrictions.
7. If instructed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide originals or copies of all personal and business telephone phone records and all credit card, checking account and PayPal statements to the U.S. Probation Officer.
8. The defendant shall report to the Probation Officer the particulars, as specified by the Probation Officer, of all transactions consummated with a check cashing service. These reports shall be made within 10 calendar days after completion of any such transaction. The defendant shall refrain from transacting business with any check cashing service if so directed by the Probation Officer.
9. The defendant shall disclose all email accounts, Pay Pal accounts, internet connections and communication devises, to include all screen names and passwords. Your use of email, internet connections, or an internet connection service will be restricted and/or monitored by monitoring software and otherwise, with the costs of remote computer monitoring to be paid by the defendant. The defendant will be prohibited from accessing any on-line service using an alias or the internet account, name or designation or another person or entity. The defendant will be prohibited from altering or using any form of encryption or other methods that limit access to, or change, the appearance of data or images. The defendant will be prohibited from altering or destroying records of computer use.
